Dean, WellStar College of Health and Human Services

Position Description

Kennesaw State University (KSU) invites applications and nominations for the next Dean of the WellStar College of Health and Human Services.

ABOUT KENNESAW STATE UNIVERSITY

A leader in innovative teaching and learning, Kennesaw State University is one of the 50 largest public institutions in the country. KSU offers more than 150 undergraduate, graduate and doctoral degrees to its nearly 38,000 students. With 13 colleges on two metro Atlanta campuses, Kennesaw State is a member of the University System of Georgia and the third-largest university in the state. The university’s vibrant campus culture, diverse population, strong global ties, entrepreneurial spirit, and Division I athletics draw students from throughout the region and from 92 countries across the globe. Ranked a top choice for students by U.S. News, Kennesaw State is a Carnegie-designated R2, community-engaged doctoral university, placing it among an elite group of only 6 percent of U.S. colleges and universities with an R1 or R2 status. Located in the Metro Atlanta area, Kennesaw State University enjoys direct access to a wealth of cultural and civic resources and maintains close ties with the surrounding professional communities.

ABOUT THE COLLEGE

The WellStar College of Health and Human Services is a dynamic and diverse college composed of four academic units: the Department of Social Work and Human Services, the Department of Exercise Science and Sport Management, the Department of Health Promotion and Physical Education and the WellStar School of Nursing. The College also houses the Academy for Inclusive Learning and Social Growth and the Continuing Education Division. The WellStar College occupies a $60 million Health Science Building (Prillaman Hall). This LEED-certified, state-of-the-art building provides a quality facility of almost 200,000 square feet. The College is also well connected to the Convocation Center, sharing space with the University Athletics Department. It is a College on the move making significant contributions to excellence in education, community service (both locally and globally), and scholarship.

ABOUT THE POSITION

The Dean will be a visionary leader who will be an integral part of the community—university and surrounding region—with several opportunities to significantly impact the continuing growth and success of the College. The Dean's responsibilities include overall leadership of the College; strategic planning and analysis of College operations; academic program development and enrollment management for departments and degree programs in the College; budget development; fundraising; faculty recruitment; liaison with department chairs and College staff; representing the College to the University administration, external partners, and alumni relations. The Dean reports to the Provost and Senior Vice President for Academic Affairs.

The Dean will have the opportunity to continue expanding and nurturing the strong strategic partnership between the WellStar Health System and Kennesaw State University. WellStar is one of the largest integrated health systems in the southeast, with the mission of enhancing the health and well-being of all the people and communities it serves through its broad network of expert, compassionate providers and spectrum of healthcare facilities. In addition to WellStar Health System, the College partners with many organizations in the metro Atlanta area to provide education, research, and clinical training, enabling the University to attract some of the brightest students.
